Welcome to our June 2015 Email Newsletter! With the arrival of summer also comes Way Public Library's Summer Reading Programs for children and teens.

Our theme for 2015 is "Every Hero Has a Story." We have tons of great programming, activities and prizes lined up for the months of June and July.

Grand prizes will be awarded at the end of summer, including a Kindle Fire and Kindle Fire Kids Edition. We encourage you to let the younger ones in your life know about this opportunity to spend their summer increasing their reading skill level while getting for a chance to win a fabulous prize.

More information about this seasonal program can be found further down this newsletter or by visiting <http://children.waylibrary.info>.

Big News at Way!

Way's 2nd Annual Cake Decorating Contest

Now Accepting Entries

Bake and decorate a cake for any occasion (birthday, graduation, Memorial Day, Father's Day, Summer, 4th of July, etc.) and submit a photo of your cake by July 6, 2015.

Pictures of the cakes will be on display for voting at Way Library from July 9 until July 24, 2015 at 5:30pm.

Prizes will be awarded in each category. Votes received will determine the "People's Choice" winners in each of the four categories. There will also be a special "Judges' Choice" award in each category chosen by a panel of guest judges.

Winners will be announced at a reception at Way Library on July 28, 2015 at 2:00pm. All contestants and their families are welcome to attend this reception.

Volunteer Spotlight June 2015

Meet Mary, Rose Marie and Barbara!

Have you had the opportunity to attend a Way Book Sale this year? If you have, then you have likely met three extraordinarily dedicated volunteers: Mary Depinet, Rose Marie Gerkovich and Barbara Blem.

Upon retiring from their professional careers, all three ladies have been busy volunteering at the Way Library. They have all served as officers on the Way Public Library Foundation & Friends or the Way Public Library Board of Directors. They also volunteer at the annual Snowball, work as a Book Buddy or are busy in the technical processing department. What else do they have in common? A friendly smile, a "can do" attitude, and the willingness to share their time, talent, and energy. "Hats off" to Mary, Rose Marie and Barbara!

Kroger Rewards - Time to Register or Re-Register!

A little thing can help a lot!

Do you shop at Kroger? If so, you can support Way library at no cost to you by simply designating us as your Community Rewards recipient.

For those already registered? It is time to renew. Each year in April/May, Kroger requires participants to re-designate their Community Reward choice. For those not registered, you can support Way by simply registering your card online. It's easy and only takes a couple of minutes.

Simply go to www.krogercommunityrewards.com and enter 84550 (Way Public Library code) as your designation choice. It's that easy and it makes a difference. If you have any questions please contact Lisa Richard at 419-874-3135 ext. 139 or at lisa.richard@waylibrary.info

June and July Gallery Exhibit

An Artist Life, a Retrospect of Joanne Grossmann

PRIZM Creative Community and the Way Public Library Gallery are pleased to open a new solo exhibit of artistic and historic interest. "An Artist Life," a retrospective of Joanne Grossmann, will be on display during the months of June and July during normal library hours. The collection contains large scale oil paintings created by Joanne over the years as well as memorabilia of living in and around the Perrysburg area. Memoirs on display include her book published in 2001 named, "Letters from Camp" which documents the experiences of her father (Floyd Thornton, former Mayor of Perrysburg) as an Army officer during WWI.

A summer opening reception to visit with the Artist, family and community members will be held on Tuesday July 7th, from 6:30- 8:00 p.m. in the Way Library Gallery. Light refreshments will be served.
