

Cutting Board Sunflower Bouquet

Supplies included:

Cutting board
Flower rolling tool
Precut on Cricut
Vinyl mason jar with saying
(contact paper to transfer)
Yellow swirls (sunflowers)
Gray circles (sunflower centers)

Additional supplies needed:

Hot glue gun
Hot glue sticks
Black permanent marker
Scissor (optional)

Step 1

Take plastic wrap off of cutting board. Rub back of mason jar vinyl piece. Remove paper backing off of mason jar and "You are my Sunshine" vinyl so that vinyl is attached to contact paper. With cutting board placed vertically on work surface, position vinyl on cutting board about an inch from bottom of cutting board and centered between left and right edges. Rub area to adhere vinyl to cutting board. Gently remove contact paper and rub finger over mason jar & words to make sure they are attached to cutting board. Set cutting board aside.

Step 2

To make sunflowers, add dots with black marker to gray centers of sunflowers. Repeat step for all 6 gray centers. Set aside.

Step 3

Next, we're going to roll sunflowers using flower rolling tool (created by cutting a slit into end of 6 inch wooden dowel and adding electrical tape about a 1/4 inch from the end). Place end of yellow paper swirl into slit at end of wooden dowel with petals facing up. Twirl paper tightly around dowel. Pull flower off dowel. DO NOT ALLOW FLOWER TO UNWIND. Hot glue circle at end of yellow swirl to make a base for sunflower.

Step 4

Bend petals out from center so sunflower lays flat. Attach gray center with black dots to yellow sunflower with hot glue. Repeat Steps 3 and 4 for all 6 sunflowers.

Step 5

Position sunflowers on cutting board above mason jar for a sunflower bouquet. Hot glue sunflowers in place.
