October is jammed full of programs here at the library including some spooky ones for Halloween! Make sure to pick up an adult or children's program calendar next time you're visiting Way Library. The wood panels in the library were created to remind us of all the colors of autumn. Take a look and see if your favorite color of autumn is there. Happy pumpkin month and Happy Fall!

New at Way Library

Code & Go Robot Mouse

Recommended Age: 4+

Category: STEM

The race is on the build with hands-on coding skills! Build your maze, and then use the coding cards to create a step-by-step path for Colby, the programmable robot mouse.

Program the sequence of steps, and then watch Colby race to find the cheese.

Coding Critters Go-Pets

Recommended Age: 4+

Category: STEM

Get ready for twisting, twirling storybook coding adventures with Dipper the Narwhal. This clever motorized interactive pet knows how to follow black-line paths toward all kinds of undersea adventures. Follow along with Dipper's story in the set's coding activity book, then arrange the tiles to code your critter and reach a goal! Every adventure with Dipper helps kids master the building blocks of coding and STEM, from counting and ordinal numbers to sequential thought and computational thinking.

Tonieboxes – Disney Princess, Disney, and Sesame Street

Recommended Age: 3+

Category: Literacy

Turn it on, pop a Tonie on top and let the adventure begin! The Toniebox engages little listeners through audio. By listening to stories and songs, rather than staring at a screen, your child is immersed in new worlds of imaginative and independent play. The included Playtime Puppy Tonie features some of the most popular songs for playtime, including Wheels on the Bus, If You're Happy and You Know It, and more. Just connect the Toniebox to WiFi to start your listening adventure. It's an easy one-time setup using the mytonies app, where the parents are always in control. The app allows parents to adjust settings like maximum volume. The Tonies library of content features stories and songs while also focusing on educational lessons, mindfulness exercises, and assisting naptime and routines.

Topical Tuesdays Continues with Panel on Media Literacy

Tuesday, October 18 at 7 pm

Way Library and the League of Women Voters of the Perrysburg Area welcome an expert panel for a presentation on media literacy. The panelists, BGSU Librarian Colleen Boff, Rosford Journal Editor Beth Church, and Perrysburg High School Teacher Tim Kitson, will discuss the importance of media literacy in our lives and provide insight into their role in educating students and informing the public.

Colleen Boff has worked at Bowling Green State University (BGSU) since 1999. She currently serves as the Head Librarian of the Curriculum Resource Center and works with a team of three to provide outreach and instruction primarily to the students and faculty in the College of Education and Human Development.

Beth Church has served as editor of the Rossford Record Journal, a weekly newspaper that is part of the chain of four suburban newspapers of Welch Publishing Co. since 2004. She holds a Ph.D. in Rhetoric and Writing from Bowling Green State University and has served as a college writing professor since 2003.

Tim Kitson has been an English teacher at Perrysburg High School since 2011. He holds a Master's degree from Bowling Green State University.

SHOW ME THE MOVIE!

Especially for contemporary film fans, Way Library presents

Father Stu (2022)

Wednesday, October 19 at 2 pm

Based on a true story, Father Stu follows the life of Stuart Long played by Mark Wahlberg. When an injury ends his amateur boxing career, Stuart moves to Los Angeles to find money and fame. While scraping by as a supermarket clerk, he meets Carmen (Teresa Ruiz), a Sunday school teacher who seems immune to his bad-boy charm. Determined to win her over, the longtime agnostic starts going to church to impress her. However, a motorcycle accident leaves him wondering if he can use his second chance to help others, leading to the surprising realization that he's meant to be a Catholic priest. This biopic was directed by Rosalind Ross and produced by Mel Gibson.

The film is rated R for language and has a runtime of 2 hours and 4 minutes. Seating is limited. First-come, first-seated.

Reel Art Movie
- Hive (Albanian-Kosovan)
Friday, October 21, 7 pm

Based on the true story of Fahrije who goes against societal expectations to become an entrepreneur. After her husband goes missing during the war in Kosovo, she pulls together the other widows in her community to launch a business selling a local food product, ajvar (Serbian roasted red pepper sauce) and honey.

November Spice of the Month

Basil

Romans believed the fragrance of basil stimulate love. Women seeking true love merely had to hand a sprig of it to their intended and he would be forever hers. Italian men used basil in courtship as well, signaling matrimonial intent by wearing a sprig in their hair.

Everything you need
in one app

Get the App!

If you are an Apple or Android user, you can now get access to your library account with one click!

Download the Way Library app on the App Store or Google Play.

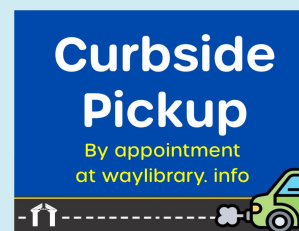

You can manage checkouts and holds on your account, search the catalog, browse book recommendations, quickly access the Curbside Pickup feature, connect to social media, and more!

If you need a little guidance, take our video tour with step-by-step instructions for downloading and using the app.

Convenient Curbside Pickup

Curbside pickup remains popular at Way for its safety and convenience. Any patron can pick up books and other physical materials using our contactless service.

October is my favorite month of all! I love the warm days (mostly warm) and cool nights. Jeans and sweatshirts on the weekends are perfect for football games and friends around the fire. The end of the month is full of spooky fun. And it's always full of pumpkin and cinnamon at my house!
