October News Bits from Way

A small collection of newsworthy items.

- Pay special attention to our Family Fun Night information listed below! This is one of our large yearly events and you don't want to miss it!
- Our Fall 2013 Technology Workshop Schedule still has some openings. We've expanded our roster of available classes. All events are free, but some require registration. Learn More here.
- If you would like a more concise list of adult workshops for October, feel free to download our PDF version here.
- The Affordable Care Act sign up period starts this month. The best resource for getting started is the government website http://r20.rs6.net/tn.jsp?e=001waKQvY7UEBcx4Buypf2CJ7X\_t-85swvoZjl\_DqITyaw4EZ2kv97JLO6dl8NEWmC6xu6oNod4Mtt9JWFbUhdQ\_qFzXZAMhYRxv4JnB2h5v6WHnqDo\_vNJQ==.

Making the correct healthcare choices requires an understanding of each person's or family's unique health and financial circumstances. Members of the Way Public Library staff are not trained or licensed to provide advice or to assist you in selecting a specific health plan, but can provide information and direction to public resources about the Affordable Care Act that will help you make your own choices.

Mercy and Way Library Announce Special Partnership

Dr. Chris Goliver, and Dr. Todd Helfman of Mercy recently presented JP Hayward, Way Board of Trustees (in center) with a check for $20,000. Dr. Goliver is the Medical Director of Emergency Services for the new Mercy Medical Center in Perrysburg.

To further children's educational programming and opportunities at Way Public Library, Mercy and the library are partnering on new initiatives to benefit Perrysburg and the surrounding communities. As such, Mercy donated $20,000 to the children's department at Way and the youth activity room in Way's children's area will be renamed: Mercy Family Activity Center.

This workshop will cover both Kindle Fire and Kindle Black and White versions. This is a free event and registration is not required. Free refreshments will be served.

October 8th - Presentation on Paranormal Investigations

Do you believe in ghosts? On Tuesday, October 8th at 7:00 pm join the Ohio Researchers of Banded Spirits (ORBS) for a lively presentation on paranormal investigations! The presentation will be given by Chris Page, the founder of ORBS; Amy Cobb, the co-founder of ORBS and a project manager; and Karlo Zuzic, a project manager for the team. You will learn how to investigate haunted locations, see ghost hunting equipment, and hear evidence of spirit voices.

This program is free and open to the public; refreshments will be served.

October 10 - Reel Talk: Free Showing of The More the Merrier

In its season opener, on October 10 at 10:00am, Reel Talk presents the classic 1943 romantic comedy "The More The Merrier" starring Joel McCrea and Jean Arthur. Set in Washington, D.C. during World War II in the midst of a housing shortage, Jean Arthur's character patriotically rents half of her apartment to a millionaire played by Charles Coburn, who in turn rents half of his half to an army sergeant played by Joel McCrea. Coburn naturally attempts to play Cupid, and the sparks fly! This crowd-pleasing film earned six Academy Award nominations in 1943.

Evan Chase, coordinator of the classic film series at the Maumee Indoor, will be the guest speaker. This is a free event. Registration is not required. Refreshments will be free.

October 11 - Mobile Device Petting Zoo

On Friday October 11 from 11:00am to 12:30pm join us for a short, hands on demo of mobile devices. This is a great opportunity to play with many popular mobile devices. A short demonstration will be offered on each. Devices shown at this petting zoo will be: iPad 1, iPad 3, Kindle Fire, Nook Color, Asus Transformer Pad (Android), Sony Reader, Chrome Book, and others.

This is a free event and registration is not required.

October 11 - Reel Art: Free showing of The Thief

The next entry in our International and Art Film Series at Way will be Friday, October 11 at 7pm.

Skillfully and beautifully photographed, 'The Thief' is a rueful drama about a single mother with a young son and the duplicitous soldier she desperately allows into their family. Set in Stalinist Russia, this compelling story of bitter love and fatherly betrayal garnered numerous awards, including a Best Foreign Film Oscar nomination. (Russian with English subtitles)

This event is sponsored by the Waterford Bank, N.A.

October 12 - 3D Paper Art

Way Public Library is pleased to host a crafting workshop on 3D Paper Art on Saturday, October 12th from 9:30-11:30 am. Join Aimee Frey as she instructs you on making cards with coordinating envelopes, gift card boxes, and post-it note holders, all in an Autumn theme. Aimee is a resident of Woodville and has been stamping and paper crafting for 12 years. She is dedicated to teaching people new crafting techniques - come join her for this make-and-take program.

Registration is required at the Way Public Library Information Desk and space is limited. Adults only. There is a $3.00 fee for this program payable at time of registration. All materials are provided.

October 14 - Columbus Day Blood Drive at Way from 10am to 3pm

When you give blood, you give life! You can schedule your appointment to give blood at the Way Library Blood Drive by calling 419-874-3135 ext 119, or by going online to <http://redcrossblood.org> and entering sponsor code: WAYLIBRARY. Or stop by the Way Information Desk to register today. The Way Library blood drives generally move along quickly with little or no waiting.

Walk-ins are always welcome!

October 15 - Video Travelogue from Barcelona to Dubai

On October 15, at 2pm, join us for a video travelogue from speaker Judy Pfaffenerger. The adventure begins in Barcelona and ends in spectacular Dubai! With stops along the way at Alexandria, amazing Petra, and the Valley of Kings, this event is sure to intrigue.

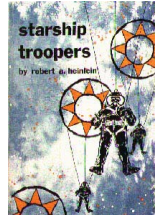

Admission is free and registration is not required.

October 15 - Science Fiction Book Club Discusses Starship Troopers

Are you a fan of Science Fiction? Are you familiar with the names of Clarke, Heinlein, and Asimov? If you had a space suit, would you travel? Do you dream of electric sheep? If so, this might be the book discussion group you've been waiting for.

The next meeting of the Science Fiction Book Club will be October 15th, at 5:30 pm in the Technology Lab. We will be reading and discussing Robert A. Heinlein's controversial classic, "Starship Troopers". Please contact Doug Kolpien (419-874-3135 x106) if you are interested in participating.

October 15 - Urban Legends with Professor Daniel Compura

Join Professor Daniel Compura of the University of Toledo on Tuesday, October 15th at 7:00 pm for a presentation on urban legends. Professor Compura is an Associate Professor who teaches Composition, Science Fiction & Fantasy literature, and Folklore. He has published in the areas of Distance Learning and Computers and Writing. He is regarded as an expert on Dog Lady Island, a local urban legend from his hometown of Monroe, Michigan, which he has researched since 1987. He contributed this story to Ghost Stories of Michigan, and has given several presentations on this and other urban legends.

During this free presentation, Professor Compura will discuss well-known legends and explain why we enjoy telling and hearing these scary stories!

October 16 - First Aid Classes

Date: Wednesday, October 16

Time: 6-9 pm

Cost: $40, payable by cash or check at time of registration

Type of Class: CERTIFIED CLASS. Students learn skills such as how to treat bleeding, sprains, broken bones, shock and other first aid emergencies. Also teaches critical skills to respond to and manage an emergency until EMS arrives.

Primary audience: Anyone with limited or no medical training who needs a course completion card in first aid to meet job, regulatory or other requirements.

October 22 - Topical Tuesdays: A Panel Discussion on Clean Water

On Tuesday, October 22nd at 7 pm, Way Library, in cooperation with the League of Women Voters of the Perrysburg Area (LWVPA), will host a panel discussion on keeping our water clean and safe. Recent months have seen increased warnings about the presence of algal blooms and potential toxins in Lake Erie; in September an increase in the presence of microcystin, the toxin in the current algal bloom in Lake Erie prompted a water advisory for Carroll Township.

This program is free and open to the public; refreshments will be served.

Read more about the panel here...

October 23 - English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL)

Way Public Library will continue to offer a free community class - English for Speakers of Other Languages. This class is geared towards adults who are non-native speakers of English and will focus on improving communication skills. We will work on conversation, vocabulary, reading, and writing. The class is free and materials will be provided. All levels are welcome.

The class will meet on Wednesdays from October 23rd to November 20th, from 2-4 pm. Please register at the Information Desk. The class is limited to 15 participants.

October 24 - iPads 101

Learn more about your iPad on Thursday October 24 from 6:00pm to 7:30pm.

Do you own an iPad but feel like you may not be using it to its full potential? Would you like to learn how to create folders, force close apps, remove apps, and install apps? ### October 24 - When is it an Emergency?

On October 24 at 7pm, come join Mercy and Way Public Library for a special presentation on changing landscape of emergency care in Perrysburg. Dr. Chris Goliver the Medical Director of Emergency Services for Mercy Medical Center will discuss medical emergencies, what they are and where to go for the right level of care for you and your family.

Read more about this program and Dr. Goliver here...

October 27 - Michael Till, "Along Ohio's Historic Route 20" author to speak at Way

Route 20 was named a federal highway in 1926. As it zigzags its way through Perrysburg it transforms itself into other names such as Sandusky Street, Indiana Avenue, Louisiana Avenue and West Front Street. For the first half of the 20th century Route 20 was the most important east-west road across northern Ohio and Perrysburg was a major crossroad.

Mr. Till will be speaking at Way Library on Sunday October 27 at 2:00 p.m. He will discuss his book, "Along Ohio's Historic Route 20." Refreshments will be available. Copies of the book will be available for purchase after the talk.
